

EXAMPLE RSC Chemical Landmarks Nomination Form 2024

1. Welcome!

This document illustrates the questions that will be asked in the formal written application. Please do not complete this form. If you wish to complete a nomination, please get in touch with the team via email to outreach@rsc.org.

2. Applicant Details

1. Contact details for the lead person making the application, it is using these details that the RSC will communicate regarding this nomination: *

First name:

Last name:

I am a current RSC Member.

I am not a current RSC Member.

I am unsure of my RSC membership status.

I am applying on behalf of or in collaboration with an RSC Local Section (please give details below).

I am applying on behalf of or in collaboration with an RSC Interest Group. (please give details below).

I am not applying on behalf of or in collaboration with any RSC Member Group

Please use this space to give details of the Member Group on behalf of which or in collaboration with whom you are making this nomination.

3. Nomination Details

The questions in this section will ask you to give details on your plaque nomination.

3. Please give the name of the team, organisation, collaboration, process, discovery, innovation, break through or individual whom you are nominating for a plaque. There will be space later in this application form to provide more information. *

4. Please select the option that best describes your association with the nomination. *

I am nominating a group of which I am directly a member of or affiliated with.

I am nominating the organisation/institution to which I am currently formally affiliated, e.g. as a member of staff or a student.

I am nominating the organisation/institution to which have previously been formally affiliated, e.g. as a member of staff or a student.

I know or have previously known the nominee either in a personal or professional capacity.

I have (and have never had) any formal connection with the nomination.

Please use this space to give more detail.

Brief details of who and/or what your submission is (you only need to provide top level detail here). The connection of the nomination to chemical sciences. The nature and magnitude of the positive impact that your nomination has had on society. How the nomination has contributed to chemistry making the world a better place. Any third party

