

Policy priority survey March 2021

Summary report

chemical sciences

Global chemicals policy, and health challenges

---

decisions related to the research and innovation policy, UK and

Figure 1 Score distribution for the importance of different areas of research and innovation policy to the chemistry community. In order of decreasing overall weighted score<sup>1</sup> per respondent (top = highest score). (924-936 respondents).

Health challenges

Figure 3 Score distribution for the impact of the chemical sciences in health challenges, in order of decreasing overall weighted score per respondent (top = highest score). (678-684 respondents).

